RCC EVENT

PRIVACY POLICY

The OECD-GVH Regional Centre for Competition in Budapest (hereinafter referred to as the RCC), jointly operated by the Organisation for Economic Co-operation and Development (OECD) and the Hungarian Competition Authority (hereinafter referred to as the GVH or Authority), provides capacity building assistance and policy advice through workshops and training programmes on competition law. Its mission is to promote the development of competition law and culture in South-East Europe, Eastern Europe and Central Asia, thereby contributing to economic growth and prosperity in these regions. Each year, the RCC organizes a dedicated workshop for the staff of the Authority, aimed at further deepening their understanding of state-of-the-art antitrust theory and enforcement practice. In 2025, the GVH Staff Training titled "Collusion and Abuse Case Law" will be held in Budapest on 29-30 September. The GVH processes personal data related to the organisation of the workshop (hereinafter referred to as RCC event or Event). Considering Articles 13 and 14 of the Regulation (EU) 2016/679 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 27 April 2016 on the protection of natural persons with regard to the processing of personal data and on the free movement of such data, and repealing Directive 95/46/EC (General Data Protection Regulation; hereinafter GDPR), the GVH provides the following information.

The GVH shall not transfer any personal data contained in this privacy policy to a third country or international organisation.

6. Rights of the data subject

6.1. Rights of access by the data subject

You shall have the right to obtain confirmation through the contact details provided in points 1 and 2 or through the contact details of the staff responsible for organising the RCC event as regards to:

- the categories of personal data processed, the legal basis, the purposes of the processing and the duration of the storage;
- where personal data are not collected from the data subject, any available information as to their source;
- whom, when and on what legal basis the GVH has given access to your personal data, or to whom, when and on what legal basis it has disclosed them;
- the existence of the right to request from the controller rectification or erasure of your personal data or restriction of processing of your personal data or to object to such processing;
- the right to lodge a complaint with the National Authority for Data Protection and Freedom of Information or to the competent court as detailed in point 7.

The GVH shall comply with and fulfil your information request within a maximum of 30 days via the contact details provided to the GVH or in your information request.

6.2. Right to rectification

You shall have the right to contact the GVH through the contact details provided in points 1 and 2 or through the contact details of the staff responsible for organising the RCC event and shall have the right to obtain from the GVH the rectification of your inaccurate personal data. The GVH shall comply with and fulfil your request without undue delay and shall inform you via the contact details provided to the GVH or in your information request. The GVH shall communicate any rectification of personal data to each recipient to whom the personal data have been disclosed, unless this proves impossible or involves disproportionate effort. The GVH shall inform you about those recipients if you request it.

6.3. Right to erasure („right to be forgotten”)

The GVH will erase your personal data as specified in each case of the data processing. The GVH shall have the obligation to erase your personal data without undue delay if you withdraw consent on which the processing is based. The GVH shall also have the obligation to erase your personal data without undue delay where one of the following grounds applies:

- the personal data have been unlawfully processed; or
- the personal data are no longer necessary in relation to the purposes for which they were collected or otherwise processed; or
- you object to the processing pursuant to point 6.5.; or
- the personal data have to be erased for compliance with a legal obligation in Union or Member State law to which the GVH is subject.

The GVH shall communicate any erasure of personal data to each recipient to whom the personal data have been disclosed, unless this proves impossible or involves disproportionate effort. The GVH shall inform you about those recipients if you request it.

6.4. Right to restriction of processing:

You shall have the right to contact the GVH via the contact details provided in points 1 and 2 or via the contact details of the staff responsible for organising the RCC event and shall have the right to obtain from the GVH restriction of processing where one of the following applies:

- the accuracy of the personal data is contested by you, for a period enabling the GVH to verify the accuracy of the personal data;
- the processing is unlawful, and you oppose the erasure of the personal data and request the restriction of their use instead;
- the GVH no longer needs the personal data for the purposes of the processing, but they are required by you for the establishment, exercise or defence of legal claims;
- You have objected to processing pursuant to Article 21(1) pending the verification whether the legitimate grounds of the GVH override those of the data subject.

Where processing has been restricted pursuant to point 6.4., such personal data shall, with the exception of storage, only be processed with your consent or for the establishment, exercise or defence of legal claims or for the protection of the rights of another natural or legal person or for reasons of important public interest of the Union or of a Member State. If You have obtained restriction of processing, you shall be informed by the GVH before the restriction of processing is lifted.

The GVH shall communicate any restriction of processing to each recipient to whom the personal data have been disclosed, unless this proves impossible or involves disproportionate effort. The GVH shall inform you about those recipients if you request it.

6.5. Right to object

You shall have the right to object to processing of your personal data as specified in point 3.2. at any time via the contact details provided in points 1 or 2 or via the contact details of the staff responsible for organising the RCC event. The GVH shall no longer process the personal data unless the GVH demonstrates compelling legitimate grounds for the processing which override the interests, rights and freedoms of the data subject or for the establishment, exercise or defence of legal claims.

Where personal data are processed for direct marketing, scientific or historical research purposes or statistical purposes, on grounds relating to your particular situation, you shall have the right to object to processing of your personal data, unless the processing is necessary for the performance of a task carried out for reasons of public interest.

7. Right to lodge a complaint with a supervisory authority and the right to an effective judicial remedy regarding the processing of personal data

If you feel that the GVH has violated the applicable data protection requirements, you have the right to lodge a complaint with the National Authority for Data Protection and Freedom of Information and request an inquiry (address: 1055 Budapest, Falk Miksa u. 9-11.; postal address: 1363 Budapest, Pf.: 9.; e-mail address: ugyfelszolgalat@naih.hu; phone number: +36 (1) 391-1400; +36 (30) 549-6838; +36 (30) 683-5969; website: www.naih.hu).

If you consider that your rights as listed above have been infringed as a result of the processing of your personal data by the GVH, you may also bring an action before the competent court, the Budapest-Capital Regional Court, against the GVH.

8. Other provisions

The GVH reserves the right to unilaterally amend this privacy policy, subject to prior notification to the data subjects via e-mail. The GVH will inform you separately about data processing activities not included in this privacy policy.

This privacy policy is effective from 17 June 2025.
